

Today we remember those Americans who gave the ultimate sacrifice to protect this great nation and defend our way of life. From the beaches of Normandy to the caves of Afghanistan, our brave men and women in uniform gave their lives to preserve our freedom and safeguard our democracy. They are the true American heroes and we owe them everything. On this Memorial Day, we honor their sacrifice and comfort the loved ones they left behind.